

SHERMAN STATUE.

With Impressive Ceremonies it Was Unveiled in Presence of a Distinguished Gathering.

PRESIDENT PRINCIPAL SPEAKER.

The Drapery Was Drawn Aside by William Tecumseh Sherman Thorn-dyke, Grandson of the General.

The Cannon of the Fourth Artillery Boomed a Salute and the Marine Band Struck Up "The Star Spangled Banner."

Washington, Oct. 16.—With impressive ceremonies, an equestrian statue of William Tecumseh Sherman was unveiled here Thursday afternoon in the presence of official Washington, the president at its head, and thousands of veterans, members of societies of the armies of the Tennessee, the Cumberland, the Ohio and the Potomac. As the two large flags enveloping the statue were drawn aside by William Tecumseh Sherman Thorn-dyke, the 9-year-old grandson of the dead chieftain, the cannon of the Fourth artillery boomed a salute and the Marine band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner." Success marked every detail of the ceremonies which were in charge of Col. T. W. Symons, superintendent of public buildings and grounds.

Before the unveiling of the statue the president and Lieut. Gen. Young, chief of the general staff of the army, received the troops participating in the dedication parade from the stand opposite the statue. The president delivered the address of the day. A representative from each of the societies of the four armies followed in eulogies of Gen. Sherman.

Promptly at 2:30 o'clock the president, under the escort of a detachment of minute men, walked from the white house to the statue, which faces the south front of the treasury. The president walked alone, preceded by Capt. W. S. Cowies and Col. T. W. Symons, his naval military aides. Following the president were Secretary Hay, Postmaster General Payne, Secretary Cortelyou, Acting Secretary of War Oliver and Secretary Loeb. The president was received at the reviewing stand by the members of the Sherman statue commission.

With the arrival of the president began the review of the troops. Lieut. Gen. Young was chief marshal and with his staff headed the procession. Following came the Second cavalry, the engineer battalion from Washington barracks, headed by the engineer band, two battalions of coast artillery from Forts Washington, Hunt and Monroe, the Fourth field battery of artillery from Fort Myer, a company of the hospital corps, a detachment of marines and two battalions of seamen.

The second division of the parade consisted of the various organizations of the District national guard under command of Brig. Gen. Geo. H. Harris. Balking of a horse hitched to a gun of one of the artillery companies of the national guard caused an embarrassing halt in the parade. The president was greatly amused at the antics of the animal and applauded the men who came to the rescue by practically carrying the gun past the reviewing stand, horse and all.

The unveiling ceremonies began with music by the Marine band. The invocation was offered by Rev. Dr. D. J. Stafford. Gen. Grenville M. Dodge, president of the statue commission, gave a brief description of the statue and then introduced William Tecumseh Sherman Thorn-dyke, who, from the base of the pedestal pulled a cord, and two immense national flags slowly parted, unveiling the statue of his grandfather. Attached to the cord was a bunch of flowers which the little fellow carried to the stand and presented to the president, who congratulated him warmly.

The president was introduced by Gen. Dodge. As he arose the veterans gave him round after round of cheers. The president's speech was frequently interrupted with applause.

TILLMAN NOT GUILTY.

Such the Verdict of Jury After Deliberating 20 Hours.

Lexington, S. C., Oct. 16.—The jury in the case of J. H. Tillman Thursday found him not guilty of the murder of Editor Gonzales. The jury announced at 10:45 that a verdict had been agreed upon. The defendant and attorneys were sent for and the jury then filed into the court room and the verdict was read. A demonstration followed the announcement, friends of the defendant giving vent to their feelings in a shout. The court, previous to the reading of the verdict, had admonished the spectators to refrain from any demonstration. Counsel for defense moved the defendant's discharge from the sheriff's custody. No objections being made by the state, the court made the order. The jury was out about 20 hours before returning a verdict. The defendant shook hands with the judge and members of the jury and left the court room, accompanied by his friends and counsel. There was great uncertainty when court convened, as to whether a verdict should be reached.

It is understood one or two jurors favored a verdict for manslaughter and held out till Thursday for a short term of imprisonment, but came over to the majority on the last ballot rather than fail to make a verdict.

The charge on which Ex-Lieut. Gov. James H. Tillman was tried was for the alleged murder of Editor Gonzales. Tillman, while not as prominent in politics as his uncle, Senator Tillman, was quite active, and his course was a subject of comment in the State, the paper edited by Gonzales. Tillman claimed he was unjustly assailed, and bad blood was known to exist between the two men. On January 15 last the men met on the street, and Tillman shot down Gonzales, he dying soon after. Tillman, on his trial, claimed self-defense. He said he noticed the editor eyeing him intently, that he had his hands in his overcoat pockets, and he believed he was waiting for an opportunity to draw a revolver. Tillman also said that a message was brought to him that Gonzales had said that he had made him (Tillman) show the white feather twice, and would do so again. The prosecution, on its side, asserted that the killing was premeditated and without adequate excuse.

ALASKA BOUNDARY

A British Paper Says That the Tribunal Virtually Concedes the American Case.

THIS IS FROM A RELIABLE SOURCE.

It Gives a Map and a Detailed Explanation Showing How the Decision Will Affect Canada.

Those Who Have Followed the Arguments Are Satisfied With Hon. Clifford Sifton's Preparation of the British Case.

London, Oct. 16.—The Morning Advertiser announces that it regrets to learn from a source which it regards as beyond question that the decision of the Alaskan boundary tribunal virtually concedes the American case.

The Morning Advertiser, which appears to be thoroughly satisfied with the reliability of its statement, says the news will be received in Canada with consternation. It gives a map and detailed explanation showing how the decision will affect Canada and adds that those who have followed the arguments have been thoroughly satisfied with Hon. Clifford Sifton's preparation and presentation of the case.

The dinner given by the Pilgrims' society to the Alaskan boundary commission at Claridge's hotel Thursday night proved the most notable assemblage of Englishmen, Americans and Canadians ever brought together in London. In addition to the members of the commission the British cabinet ministers, the American ambassador and the most prominent representatives of English public were present.

Field Marshal Lord Roberts presided. On his right sat Ambassador Choate and on his left Lord Justice Alverstone. Lord Lansdowne, Sir Louis Jette, Sir Stanley Clarke, the king's equerry, and Secretary Elihu Root sat at the same table, while the other guests were distributed at small tables around the room. The Englishmen present wore the decorations and orders, Lord Lansdowne and Lord Roberts having the blue ribbon of the Order of the Garter.

The other guests, numbering in all about 150, included Archdeacon Sinclair, Lord Stanley, United States Consul General Evans, Sir George Toubmangoldie, Stanford Newel, United States minister at The Hague; C. T. Yerkes, Lord Mount-Stephen, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Sir J. Hulston, Lord Claude Hamilton, Lord Strathcona, Lord Kinnaird, Lord Fairfax, Lord Jersey and Lord Hamilton, Henry Phipps, of New York, and Hon. George Keppel. Lord Roberts proposed the health of King Edward and President Roosevelt in a united toast which met with a cordial reception. He then proposed "The Alaskan Boundary Commission," to which Lord Alverstone replied, saying with a meeting of the commissioners would stand as a monument of the feeling evidenced in America and Great Britain to settle their differences by a common sense method.

Ex-United States Senator Turner and Hon. Clifford Sifton, Canadian interior minister, answered for their respective countries, the latter saying that no greater crime could be conceived amidst human nature than trouble between Great Britain and the United States.

Every Democrat should make it a point to vote this fall.

The Democrats elected the Mayor of Indianapolis this week by nearly 1,000 majority. As long as Durbin remains Governor, however, Fugitives Taylor and Finley will feel safe in their retreat.

EMMET AND POWERS.

In his speech at Frankfort James H. Mulligan gives a genteel skinning to those that have been comparing Caleb Powers to Robert Emmet. He paid a glowing tribute to the Irish patriot and his unspotted character and said:

"Emmet never conspired to have a political enemy shot in the back by a hired assassin. He never attempted to escape capture with a pardon in his pocket; Emmet never offered money to a Sudio Snuffer to flee and not testify against him; Emmet never waived the truth or falsity of an affidavit which he wished to show the judges secretly to get a new trial."

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Marked the Reception of Governor Beckham at Brandenburg—Powell's Prediction As to Belknap.

[Lexington Democrat.]

"The greatest political gathering I ever attended in my life," said Col. J. W. Powell, of Louisville, and a charter member of the Lexington lodge of Elks, to a representative of The Democrat as he was passing through on his way to Ashland, "was the one at Brandenburg.

"I have always known that Governor Beckham was a very popular man, but the ovation he received there eclipsed anything I have ever witnessed. He is more of an idol of the people than any candidate I ever knew, and the enthusiasm accorded him by the good, honest, citizens of the country surrounding has never been equalled in my experience. I wish I could describe the scenes attending this gathering. It would do the hearts of the Democrats good to hear about them, but I haven't time," said he as the conductor cut his interview short by his stern command, "All aboard."

"One thing will tell you, however," he continued as the train pulled out; "it may not be news, but it is a fact that Belknap will be the worst beaten man that has run for Governor since the war, and you mark my prophecy and see if it don't come true."

PITHY POINTS.

The man who pays as well as prays is the one that commands respect and attention.

The Republicans are much sicker of that Taylor and Powers sleuth than T. C. Campbell is of anything.

The Republican party has shown that it is ready for any extreme measure, even assassination, in order to carry its end.

As every member of a party is responsible for the acts of its leaders so every Kentucky Republican is responsible to this extent for the acts of that lawless gang at Frankfort with Taylor at its head.

Subterfuge and perversion of the truth in the matter of the assassination of William Goebel will not blind the white voters to the enormity of the crime brought about by Republican leaders at Frankfort.

The Republican party comes before the people of Kentucky this fall red handed with the blood of William Goebel, and no subterfuge or perversion of the truth will be of any avail to it.

The Republican party has certainly undertaken a tough enterprise in trying to establish the innocence of Taylor, Powers, Yontner, Howard and Finley of any complicity in the assassination of Governor Goebel, and the gentlemen will find that this is not an attractive card with which to go before the people asking for votes.

Western Stockmen Victims of the Meat Trust.

Big Packers Charged With Beating Down Prices For Cattle Until Breaking Point is Almost Reached.

OMAHA, NEB., Oct. 13.—Farmers and stockmen of the West have been robbed of millions of dollars' worth within the past six weeks by the meat trust, and consumers in the East and South have been robbed of still further millions by the same hands, is the charge made by stockmen. The big packers have, they say, by their agreements to refrain from bidding on stock at the stock yards, beaten prices down almost to the breaking point, and at the same time have raised the prices on dressed meats to Eastern consumers until they are far above what they were one year ago, when the meat trust is supposed to have been formed.

The packing trust is paying to-day 40 per cent. less for pork than one year ago, while the retailers are paying the packers 15 per cent. more for dressed pork than one year ago, making the increased profits of the trust by gouging both consumer and producer 55 per cent. on pork.

For beef steers the packers are paying 25 per cent. less than last year, while the selling price is 10 per cent. higher; increased profits to the trust 35 per cent.

These figures are from the actual market prices of Monday, the selling prices being based on Omaha prices, although the manager of one of the packing houses admitted the prices to Eastern consumers were still higher.

"Do you know that hogs have declined 50 cents this week?" was asked a retail butcher.

"That don't interest us," was his reply. "The price of hogs has nothing to do with the price the packers make us pay for dressed meats."

Conservative live-stock men claim the stockmen of Nebraska, Iowa and other Western States have lost more than $100,000,000 during the past three months by the manipulation of the markets by the packers, and that hundreds of cattlemen are on the verge of ruin. There being practically only one bidder for live stock, the trust sets the price and stockmen must sell at that price or see their stock depreciate daily.

"The packers' trust is overreaching itself in attempting to arbitrarily regulate the price of live stock," said one commission man to-day. "They do such things successfully for awhile, but there is a general agreement that they will pay for it in the long run. When the live-stock men start their new packing company they will receive enthusiastic support from Western stock raisers."

SCHOOL TAX CASE.

Court of Appeals Affirms Judge Harbeson's Decision and Pabls Schools Will Get the Levy.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the case of Kirk &c., against Sheriff Roberson. This is the suit brought to enjoin the collection of the county school levy. Judge Harbeson decided in favor of the tax, and the upper court affirms that judgment.

The question raised was whether a special legislative act of 1890 authorizing the levy of a school tax has been repealed, and whether the Fiscal Court of Mason County is authorized to levy the tax. The court below ruled the act to be not inconsistent with any provision of the Constitution, and in effect. This the Appellate Court upholds.

HOW OLD IS ANN?

Mary is 24 years old. Mary was twice as old as Ann was when Mary was as old as Ann is now. How old is Ann?

Now, Mr. Professor, or Miss School Teacher or any body in Maysville, can you tell us how old is Ann? Speaking of ages reminds us of the work we have been doing the last four months in guessing the ages of all the little babies in Maysville and surrounding counties. And guessing ages was not all the work.

BECKHAM COMING.

The Governor Will Tour State on Special Train

The Last Week of the Campaign, Speaking in Maysville Oct. 30th.

As a grand finale to Gov. J. C. W. Beckham's campaigning tour, he will in the last few days of the week preceding the election make a swing about the State on a special train, speaking at forty places which he has been unable to reach through lack of time.

The Governor's speeches and the great outbursts of enthusiasm which have greeted him everywhere have aroused the Democrats all over the State and so great has been the demand for his presence that the State Campaign Committee has determined to engage a special train on which he will make a flying trip, beginning Tuesday, October 27, and traveling all week, making his fortieth and last speech of the trip at Lagrange Saturday afternoon.

The Governor will speak in Maysville Friday afternoon, Oct. 30th.

The special train will carry a private car, which Gov. Beckham and the immediate members of his party will occupy during the tour and from the back of which most of the speeches will be delivered. The Campaign Committee will invite about eight prominent Democrats to make the trip, including United States Senators James B. McCreary and J. C. S. Blackburn. The speakers will alternate in introducing Gov. Beckham and making short speeches to the crowds. The Beckham special will be a record breaker, as the schedule calls for the covering of a vast amount of territory in a comparatively short time. An average of eight speeches a day will be made.

IN "UNCLE SAM'S" CLUTCHES.

A Revenue Detective's Shrewd Piece of Work to Catch a Washington Whisky Seller.

Hicks Perril, of Washington, may not get back from that free excursion he went on a few days ago with "Uncle Sam" as soon as he might like, it is thought. He won't be here by the 1st of November at any rate, and if he reaches home this winter he will be lucky.

The way Perril was caught up with was enough to make an undertaker smile. He had been running a whisky joint for a long time, but had generally managed to evade the law and its detectives. One morning though a few weeks ago a detective struck Washington who was as slippery as an eel and cunning as a fox. He came in the guise and garb of a mountain corn-cutter, fresh from the fields, with his knife in hand. He evidently knew his man for he wasn't long in joining a crowd that was being enlivened by Perril's eloquence. He complained of being tired, sick and hungry and enquired where he could get a cup of coffee. He was told to go to any white family and it would be given him. The fellow's reply was that he didn't like to apply to whites as they didn't treat him right. This struck the fancy of Mr. Perril, who told the applicant to come home with him and he would give him his dinner.

Upon arrival at the Perril home the corn-cutter said he would like the best in the world to have a little whisky, as he was weak and his stomach needed a stimulant. The deal was soon made for a pint, and after a swig and cup of coffee the corn-cutter took his departure, only to turn up the next morning in front of the Perril home in a stylish rig drawn by two horses, himself in stylish attire, but not beyond being easily recognized by Mr. Perril as his late visitor.

He explained his sudden return to his recent host and the twain were soon under way from the historic town of Washington, much to the chagrin of Mr. Perril, who was taken to Covington to answer a charge of violating the revenue laws.

Tenant House on Mr. Wall Smoot's Farm Destroyed Thursday Afternoon.

A farm house occupied by Mr. John Ernest on Mr. Wall Smoot's farm near Tuckahoe was destroyed by fire shortly after 12 o'clock Thursday.

The fire started from a defective flue, or a spark falling on the roof. A strong wind was blowing and the building and contents were soon in ashes, Mr. Ernest losing all his household goods.

The loss amounts to $800 or $1,000 on building and contents. The building was insured for $340 in the Farmers Mutual Aid Association.

About 10 o'clock last night, the family of Mr. Galanty discovered a man prowling about their home on Lee street. Mrs. Galanty aroused some of her neighbors, and they telephoned for Police-man Senteney. When the officer arrived the prowler fled across the Government lot and out Plum street. Mr. Senteney overhauled him in the alley near the old Lowry grocery. The man was hatless when caught and denied being the party wanted, but a search at the Galanty home disclosed the fellow's hat. He was jailed and will be given a hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon. He gave the name of J. W. Miner and says his home is at Bradford, Pa. What his object was is not known.
